WELCOME TO SLIFF

Cinema St. Louis (CSL) is excited to present the 31st Annual Whitaker St. Louis International Film Festival (SLIFF), running November 3-13. The festival will showcase a wide variety of films across multiple venues throughout the St. Louis area, in addition to two new locations in St. Charles and Edwardsville. More than 150 films will also be available online.

We are excited to welcome back members of our community, in whatever way they choose to experience SLIFF. We still wish for our patrons to feel safe at the fest this year so we will continue to monitor new Covid variants but we also believe film is most impactful when we experience it together. All of us have a memory in a movie theater, whether it be our first time in front of the big screen, sharing popcorn with a date, or laughing with a packed house. And SLIFF offers local film lovers a chance to travel around the world, experiencing untold stories that inspire and transform.

Film festivals keep independent film alive.

Thank you for joining us this year. Your support makes it possible for us to showcase untold stories, educate future filmmakers, and inspire audiences to become change-makers for good.

See you at the movies!

Bree Maniscalco
Executive Director
Together, we keep art happening.

YOUR gift to the Arts and Education Council keeps meaningful arts and arts education happening across our region.

- Narrative Feature
- Documentary Feature
- Shorts Program
The 31st Annual Whitaker St. Louis International Film Festival (SLIFF) is again partnering with Eventive, which also handles our ticketing, to present the virtual component of the festival.

Here are the key elements of the virtual offerings at the fest:

- Program Availability: SLIFF’s lineup of features and shorts programs will be available to view on demand anytime during the fest.

- Geographic Availability: All virtual film programs will be available to residents of Missouri and Illinois.

- Watch Window: Once a ticket-holder begins watching a program, access to it remains available for 48 hours.

- Live Streams: Three free live streams will be offered at specific times/dates.

Full information on access, including system requirements, is found in the Virtual Fest FAQ at watch.eventive.org/help.

Help with playing films on your TV (through HDMI, casting/airplay, or apps) is found at www.cinemastlouis.org/connect-device-your-tv.
Three special presentations, including two master classes and the closing-night awards presentation, will be free as live streams on Eventive. Below is a list of the live streams:

Saturday, Nov. 5, 10 AM:
Master Class: Missouri Stories Production Lab

Sunday, Nov. 6, 10 AM
Master Class: Behind The Scenes (with Casting Directors, Directors, and Actors)

Sunday, Nov. 13, 8:30 PM
Closing-Night Awards Presentation

SLIFF’s lineup of virtual features and shorts programs will be available to view on demand through Eventive during the festival. There are 38 programs available at a special $5 price. The festival is proud to offer 256 films, including more than 100 documentary and narrative features and 21 short film programs from the widest possible range of storytellers, representing 42 countries featuring more than 35 native languages. In addition to offering a variety of centrally located venues, SLIFF strives to maintain accessibility by offering 32 programs for free and all virtual programming at a discounted rate of $5 per program.

SLIFF guests will explore documentary topics across a variety of thought-provoking films including the story of Lavar Burton and Reading Rainbow in “Butterfly in the Sky,” gastronomic revolutionary chef, Charlie Trotter in “Love, Charlie: The Rise and Fall of Chef Charlie Trotter,” the journey of the veteran interplanetary Mars Exploration Rover, Opportunity in “Good Night Oppy,” and “All That Breathes,” winner of the World Documentary Grand Jury Prize at the 2022 Sundance Film Festival.

With films representing 6 continents, the international films will deliver memorable moments for SLIFF audiences. Highlights include “Broker,” the latest from Japanese director Hirokazu Kore-eda (“Shoplifters”), “Corsage,” Austria’s Official Oscar® Entry for Best International Feature Film for the 95th annual awards in 2023, “The Cow Who Sang a Song into the Future,” “Holy Spider,”
TIMELESS ELEGANCE.

“Mars One,” Brazil’s Official Oscar® Entry for Best International Feature Film for the 95th annual awards in 2023, and “You Resemble Me.”

Below are some of the other highlights of this year’s SLIFF:

THE DIVIDED CITY
SLIFF’s The Divided City program focuses on the racial divide in St. Louis and other U.S. cities. The films are supported by The Divided City: An Urban Humanities Initiative, a program of Washington U.’s Center for the Humanities that addresses one of the most persistent and vexing issues in urban studies: segregation.

Sponsored by the Center for the Humanities at Washington University

GEORGIA FRONTIERE
CINEMA FOR STUDENTS PROGRAM
SLIFF offers free daytime screenings for children and teens from participating St. Louis-area schools. This year’s selections include shorts, documentary features, narrative features, and shorts programs. See the Cinema for Students section of the SLIFF website for full information.

Sponsored by Chip Rosenbloom and Lucia Rosenbloom (in honor of Georgia Frontiere) and the Hawkins Foundation, with support from the Cardinals Care Foundation and the Jane M. & Bruce P. Robert Charitable Foundation

HUMAN RIGHTS SPOTLIGHT
This selection of documentaries focuses on human rights issues in the U.S. and the world.

Sponsored by William A. Kerr Foundation with support from Sigma Iota Rho Honor Society for Global Studies at Washington University

MASTER CLASSES
SLIFF provides three free master classes — one in-person event and two live streams. See the Special Events section for full information.

Sponsored by the Chellappa-Vedavalli Foundation

NEW FILMMAKERS FORUM
The New Filmmakers Forum (NFF), a juried competition of works by first-time feature filmmakers, is an annual highlight of SLIFF. The featured films this year are “Balloon Animal,” “Cherry,” “Freedom’s Path,” “Land of Gold,” and “The Moon and Back.” The NFF Emerging Filmmaker Award — nick-named the Bobbie in honor of the late Bobbie Lautenschlager, NFF’s longtime curator — is presented at SLIFF’s Closing-Night Awards Presentation.

RACE IN AMERICA: THE BLACK EXPERIENCE
Because the events in Ferguson continue to resonate in St. Louis and the country, SLIFF again offers a large number of programs organized under the title Race in America: The Black Experience. To maximize accessibility and promote dialogue, 6 of the 11 programs in Race in America are offered for free.

Sponsored by Trio Foundation of St. Louis

SHOW-ME CINEMA
Films made in St. Louis and Missouri or by current and former St. Louisans and Missourians are an annual focus of SLIFF. This year’s lineup of Show-Me Cinema includes 12 feature films and one shorts program.

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Previous SLIFF Lifetime Achievement Award winners include directors Michael Apted, Charles Burnett, Joe Dante, Paul Schrader, and Oliver Stone; acting legends Tony Curtis, Ruby Dee and Ossie Davis, John Goodman, Stacy Keach, Kevin Kline, Marsha Mason, and Kathleen Turner; independent filmmakers Jon Jost, Rob Nilsson, and John Sayles and Maggie Renzi; documentarians Joe Berlinger, Les Blank, Ken Burns, Steve James, Albert Maysles, Ross McElwee, Sam Pollard, and Gordon Quinn; comedians Jerry Lewis and Harry Shearer; animators Bill Plympton and Michael Sporn; Mary Strauss, Joe Edwards; and longtime Cinema St. Louis chair Kim Tucci.

Cliff Froehlich

Cliff Froehlich retired as executive director of Cinema St. Louis in June 2022. He oversaw a total of 19 film festivals while serving two stints as ED, from April 2001-March 2003 and from January 2006 until his retirement. In between his years at CSL, Froehlich worked as arts-and-entertainment editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Before joining Cinema St. Louis, Froehlich filled a variety of editorial roles (including executive editor) at The Riverfront Times, St. Louis’ alternative newsweekly, starting in May 1983 as a freelance film reviewer and moving to full-time editor status in August 1987. During four of his 18 years at the RFT, he simultaneously worked as managing editor of St. Louis Magazine, helping relaunch the publication. He continues to write on occasion for Washington U.’s The Common Reader and has freelanced for the RFT, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, St. Louis Magazine, St. Louis Jewish Light, and St. Louis Public Radio. Since 1984, Froehlich has served as an adjunct faculty member at Webster University, teaching courses in film history and criticism. For more than 20 years, he was associated with the Metro East Humane Society of Edwardsville, Ill., a nonprofit he helped found, serving as both board member and president. Froehlich recently rejoined the MEHS board. He holds an M.A. in journalism from the University of Missouri-Columbia and an honors B.A. in political science from St. Louis University.

AUDIENCE CHOICE AWARDS

Audience voting determines the winner of three awards from among the films in competition:

Best Film Award

Leon Award for Best Documentary (named in memory of the late civic leader Leon Strauss)

Best International Film
JURIED COMPETITION AWARDS

NFF EMERGING DIRECTOR AWARD: THE BOBBIE
The New Filmmakers Forum (NFF) annually presents the Emerging Director Award. Five works by first-time feature filmmakers compete for the prize, which includes a $500 cash award. The selected films:

NFF FILMS: Balloon Animal, Cherry, Freedom's Path, Land of Gold, The Moon & Back

Since its inception, NFF was co-curated by Bobbie Lautenschlager. Bobbie passed away in the summer of 2012, and SLIFF honors her memory by nicknaming the NFF Emerging Director Award as the Bobbie.

The NFF jury is Andrea Sporcic Klund (chair), Film Commissioner, Missouri Film Office; Joe Bilancia, Director of Programming, OUTshine Film Festival; Veronica Loncar, Artistic Director, Kansas City Film Festival; Katie McCullough, Film Festival Strategist & Founder, Festival Formula; and Lela Meadow-Conner, Creative Producer, Curator & Founder, Mama Film

SHORTS AWARDS
Two juries choose the winners of the following seven awards from among the shorts in competition:

- Best of Fest
- Best Animated Short
- Best Documentary Short
- Best International Short
- Best Live Action Short
- Best Local Short
- Best Short Short (less than 5 minutes)

The SLIFF shorts competition is officially sanctioned by the Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences, making the winners in the Best of Fest, Best Animated, Best Live Action, and Best Documentary categories eligible to submit for Oscar® consideration.

Chris Aaron, filmmaker and assistant professor of film and animation at Webster University; Sarah Baraba, educator, writer, and co-owner of Arkadin Cinema & Bar; Lindsay Berkebile, a stop-motion animator and director for Adult Swim and projects such as “Robot Chicken,” “Super Mansion,” “Crossing Swords,” and “Psycho Psalms”; Drew Edelstein, communications specialist, and contributor to Cinema St. Louis’ The Lens; Keith Watson, attorney, film critic, and co-owner of Arkadin Cinema & Bar.

The documentary-shorts jury is Ben Scholle, documentary filmmaker and Senior Professor of Cinema Arts at Lindenwood University; Leigh Kolb, assistant professor of English and journalism and freelance writer for outlets such as Vulture and Women and Hollywood; Darian Wigfall, founder of St. Louis art and music imprint FarFetched.

SPOTLIGHT ON INSPIRATION DOCUMENTARY AWARD
Sponsored by The Albrecht Family
This juried competition awards a $5,000 prize to a feature documentary that focuses on people working to make the world a better place and that inspires audience members and leaves them with a sense of hope for the future.

FILMS: Be Our Guest, Delivering Hope, Drowning in Silence, The Hong Konger: Jimmy Lai’s Extraordinary Struggle for Freedom, Keeper of the Flame, Of Medicine and Miracles, Raised Up West Side, With This Light

The jury is Barry Albrecht (chair), partner with the Bodley Group and director of the Albrecht Family Foundation; Katie Carter, film critic at katieatthemovies.com; Novotny Lawrence, associate professor in the Greenlee School of Journalism and Communication and the English Department at Iowa State University, author of Blaxploitation Films of the 1970s: Blackness and Genre, co-editor of Beyond Blaxploitation, and Editor-in-Chief of The Journal of Popular Culture; Colin O’Brien, St. Louis-based theater, concert, and event producer; Kenya Vaughn, journalist, film critic, and St. Louis American contributing editor; David Wraith, a Saint Louis native writer, filmmaker, sex educator, activist, and co-founder of Sex Positive St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS FILM CRITICS’ JOE POLLACK AND JOE WILLIAMS AWARDS
In conjunction with the St. Louis Film Critics organization, SLIFF holds juried competitions for documentary and narrative features. The awards are named in honor of the late St. Louis Post-Dispatch critics Joe Pollack (narrative) and Joe Williams (documentary). The winners are picked by two juries of St. Louis film critics. SLIFF chose eight films to compete in each category:

DOCUMENTARIES: Anonymous Sister, A Crack in the Mountain, Good Night Oppy, Immediate Family, Oyate, Raised Up West Side, Wild Beauty, Wildcat

NARRATIVES: Corner Office, Hinterland, Holy Spider, Nanny, Once Upon a Time in the Future: 2121, One and Four, Underneath: Children of the Sun, You Resemble Me

The documentary jury is Lynn Venhaus (chair), Martha Baker, KDHX Radio; and Jim Tudor, Zekefilm

The narrative jury is Jim Batts (chair), We Are Movie Geeks; Max Foizey, KTRS Radio and ZekeFilm; Cate Marquis, We Are Movie Geeks and St. Louis Jewish Light; and Alex McPherson, PopLifeSTL.com

TRIBUTE TO CLIFF FROEHLICH
Saturday, Nov. 12, 7 PM, Webster U./Moore

Please join Cinema St. Louis as we honor our former executive director, Cliff Froehlich on Saturday, November 12th at Webster University.

The program begins at 7 pm with a tribute to Cliff and his accomplishments during his 19-year tenure with Cinema St. Louis. At 7:30 pm, a screening of one of Cliff’s favorite films, “His Girl Friday” will begin.

If you’re unable to attend but still wish to honor Cliff, please consider making a contribution in his name to Cinema St. Louis on our website.

Cliff Froehlich retired as executive director of Cinema St. Louis in June 2022. He oversaw a total of 19 film festivals while serving two stints as ED, from April 2001-March 2003 and from January 2006 until his retirement. In between his years at CSL, Froehlich worked as arts-and-entertainment editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Before joining Cinema St. Louis, Froehlich filled a variety of editorial roles (including executive editor) at The Riverfront Times, St. Louis’ alternative newsweekly, starting in May 1983 as a freelance film reviewer and moving to full-time editor status in August 1987. During four of his 18 years at the RFT, he simultaneously worked as managing editor of St. Louis Magazine, helping relaunch the publication. He continues to write on occasion for Washington U.’s The Common Reader and has freelanced for the RFT, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, St. Louis Magazine, St. Louis Jewish Light, and St. Louis Public Radio. Since 1984, Froehlich has served as an adjunct faculty member at Webster University, teaching courses in film history and criticism. For more than 20 years, he was associated with the Metro East Humane Society of Edwardsville, Ill., a nonprofit he helped found, serving as both board member and president. Froehlich recently rejoined the MEHS board. He holds an M.A. in journalism from the University of Missouri-Columbia and an honors B.A. in political science from St. Louis University.

Sponsored by the Jane M. and Bruce P. Charitable Foundation, Cravings, Shirley Sahrmann, and Webster University.

MASTER CLASS: INVESTING IN FILM
Thursday, Nov. 10, 5 PM (check-in 5-5:30 PM; happy hour from 6:30-7 PM), Capes Sokol (8182 Maryland Ave.), Free (but a ticket is required for this event)

Filmmaking is an art form, but it’s also a business. A somewhat elusive topic, come learn more about how investment in film projects work. Attorney Pete Salsich with Capes Sokol and Casey Sunderland in the Media Finance Department at Creative Artists Agency (CAA) will share insight on the process for those interested in investing and for creatives seeking to work with investors.

The class will be led by the following:

Pete Salsich III, known as The Screen Lawyer, is an experienced intellectual-property attorney whose practice is focused on advising large and small companies and entrepreneurs regarding the creation, protection, and use of intellectual property, in both litigation and transactional counseling, particularly in the media, technology, and entertainment industries. Pete has represented television production companies, independent film projects, and independent producers in connection with their business formation, deal structure, network contracts, publishing contracts, rights acquisition, IP licensing, and copyright and trademark protection.

Andrea Sporcic Klund is the film commissioner for Missouri and runs the Missouri Film Office, which is a part of the Missouri Division of Tourism. She has been in the film biz representing Missouri for more than 20 years. Since 2005, she has worked to market Missouri to the film and television industry nationwide. Andrea has helped coordinate production logistics for more than 30 feature films and hundreds of television segments and series filmed all over the state, including the feature films “Up in the Air,” “Winter’s Bone,” and “Gone Girl” and the TV series “Sharp Objects” and “Ozark.” Before joining the film office, she spent eight years with Cinema St. Louis as director of operations. She holds B.A. degrees in theater and corporate communications from Lindenwood University. She has also acted, written, directed, and produced for the stage and screen.

Casey Sunderland is an Agent in the Media Finance department at the leading entertainment and sports agency Creative Artists Agency (CAA). Based in Los Angeles, Sunderland specializes in packaging, sourcing financing for, and/or selling distribution rights to independently financed films. In addition, he builds client production companies and sources new business opportunities for the agency. Sunderland has also successfully built a global ecosystem of emerging and established film financiers, strategically building their respective film portfolios, while creating opportunities for established and first-time filmmakers, all with the collective goal of preserving the overall health of the independent film business. He also plays a key role in expanding CAA Media Finance’s work around the globe, leveraging the explosion in streamers’ demand for local-language content. Sunderland joined CAA in 2015. Sunderland graduated from Colgate University with a degree in Film & Media Studies, Economics, and Architecture.

Directions: There is paid parking in the building garage and metered parking on the street. To reach the Capes Sokol offices, enter the lobby, follow the sign pointing to the Regions Centre, and go up the stone steps or ramp; enter the building marked Regions Centre and go up the elevator to the 15th floor.

MISSOURI STORIES PRODUCTION LAB

90 min.
Saturday, Nov. 5, 10 AM, Free

Missouri Stories Production Lab brings to life short films set in the world of winning scripts from the Missouri Stories Scriptwriting Fellowship. The writers participate as producers and experience all aspects of production. Completed films will be submitted to film festivals across the country to shine a spotlight on Missouri locations and talent.

Andrea Sporcic Klund, head of the Missouri Film Office, will host a panel discussion with the writer/producers and directors of the latest St. Louis filmed project, “Assumption”: with writer/producer Peter Hanrahan, producer Michael Kennedy, and director Alfredo De Villa.

Andrea Sporcic Klund

Michael Kennedy

In addition to “Assumption,” Michael has produced several independent feature films including “All Gone Wrong” (2021) and “Hungry Dog Blues” (2022) both of which premiered at the St Louis International Film Festival in their respective release years. He has also produced content for brands such as Spire, Panera Bread, BMW, LG Mobile, Carnival Cruise Line among many others, as well as docu-series for ESPN and MSG Network.

Peter Hanrahan

Peter Hanrahan received his MFA in Playwriting from Rutgers University and graduated with a BA in English from Washington University in St. Louis (Phi Beta Kappa). As a playwright, he has had plays read, workshopped and produced...
Alfredo de Villa is a Mexican American film director. He has directed fiction, documentaries, and TV commercials. His latest project, the series “Cooper’s Bar” for AMC Digital, was nominated for an Emmy in 2022; he executive produced the show and directed multiple episodes. On the spots front, he has most recently helmed campaigns for Meta/Facebook, Amazon Fire TV, and Microsoft. Previously, he has worked for such brands as Harley-Davidson, The Los Angeles Times, Chevrolet, Chrysler, Walmart, Comcast, Spectrum, Sprint, Oracle, AT&T, Carolina Herrera, Nestle, Kellogg’s, and Pepsi. An accomplished documentary director, he has directed several episodes for the sports documentary series “Why We Fight” (ESPN), which was nominated for an Emmy in 2020. He also directed TV episodes for “We Are the Champions” and “Heist” (Netflix, both out in 2021), the entire season of “Rough Draft With Reza Aslan” (Topic), and several specials/episodes for shows on Discovery, Fusion, CBS, and Universal. Alfredo’s “Nothing Like the Holidays” (with Alfred Molina and Debra Messing) for Overture Films recently got invited to be part of the Library of Congress film for preservation. His first film, “Washington Heights” (co-written with Pulitzer prize-winner Junot Diaz), premiered at the Tribeca Film Festival and was distributed by Lionsgate. His third film “Adrift in Manhattan” (Heather Graham, Billy Baldwin), premiered at the 2007 Sundance Film Festival. His most recent film “Fugly” (John Leguizamo and Rosie Perez) is based on Leguizamo’s successful one-man show.
Jessica Ambuehl has translated to over 100 projects across several countries representing companies and nonprofits such as NBC Universal, Hayden5, GQ, Amazon, HGTV, and Turner Entertainment. But what feeds her soul most is doing photojournalism for nonprofits around the globe, donating the imagery so stories can be shared of the amazing humanitarian work being done around the world. Jessica has a Master’s Degree in Media Communication with an emphasis in Public Relations from Webster University. She is interviewed on podcasts and shows, teaches classes on branding, production, and the business side of acting, and is a virtual business coach for Reflect The Dream School.

Deb Barylski
An Emmy award-winning casting director, Deb’s 35-year career has reached worldwide audiences. Her most recent credits include “The Middle,” “Arrested Development” (for which she won the Emmy), “Life With Bonnie,” “Still Standing,” “Home Improvement,” and “Just Shoot Me” to just name a few. Although she has extensively cast for film and TV, her first love is the theatre, which led to directing plays in Michigan, Illinois, California, and Alaska. Her last directing endeavor of “Solace” by Jake Jay Clark garnered three L.A. Weekly Award nominations including, Best Direction, Best Original Play, and Best Ensemble. Parallel to her casting experience, she has taught acting classes for camera for innumerable programs, colleges, and universities around the nation and Canada. The course topics cover acting for the camera, cold reading, and auditioning. Deb holds professional memberships in the Casting Society of America and the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences and was a member of the American Theatre Association for twenty-five years. She holds a B.A. in theatre from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and a MA in directing and theatre management from Illinois State University at Normal . . . and has been inducted to the “Hall of Fame” at both Alma Maters.

Peter Carlos
An award-winning writer and director, Peter has a resume that spans decades through Hollywood and beyond. He was chosen in 2002 as one of the Top 100 Multimedia Producers in America by AV Video Magazine. Peter has worked in film and television as a freelance producer, director, writer, and editor with countless projects winning awards and being shown to audiences in film festivals across the globe from St. Louis to Philadelphia, Belarus to Turkey, and Venice to Tokyo. He has taught courses in directing, cinema as art, TV production, scriptwriting, film history, and communications to students at all university levels and was a fellow film lecturer at the Institut American Universitaire in Aix-en-Provence (France). He received his MA in Writing from Middlebury College’s Bread Loaf Graduate School of English in Vermont and his MFA in Digital Cinema Arts from Lindenwood University.Film professor Carlos was honored by Lindenwood University with its Service Award for 2012-2013. Peter has won two St. Louis Emmys for a Television Spot as well as Corporate Programming and was selected in 2021 to be part of the Sundance Collab Workshop “Screenwriting: Crafting Your Horror Feature” from which he plans to start production on his next feature film in St. Louis in Fall 2023.

AFTER SHERMAN
Jon Sesrie-Goff, U.S., 2022, 88 min., English
Saturday, Nov. 5, 1:30 PM, Washington U./Brown
Beautifully layered and expressionistic, “After Sherman” is a story about inheritance and the tension that defines our collective American history, especially Black history. The film explores the director’s personal exploration of coastal South Carolina as a site of pride and racial trauma through Gullah cultural retention.

ALL THAT BREATHES
Shaunak Sen, India; U.K.; U.S., 2022, 97 min., Hindi
Thursday, Nov. 10, 2:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
In the darkening backdrop of Delhi’s apocalyptic air and escalating violence, two brothers devote their lives to protect one casualty of the turbulent times: the bird known as the Black Kite. “All That Breathes” was honored as the winner of the World Documentary Grand Jury Prize at the 2022 Sundance Film Festival.

ANONYMOUS SISTER
Jamie Boyle, U.S., 2021, 93 min., English
Friday, Nov. 11, 12:05 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
Over a span of three decades, Jamie uses her camera to document life. When her loved ones succumb to unexplained illness, she turns to the camera for refuge and ends up with a firsthand account of what will become the worst man-made epidemic in United States history. “Anonymous Sister” is a personal exposé of one family’s fall into opioid addiction.

ANXIOUS NATION
Vanessa Roth, Laura Morton, U.S., 2022, 100 min., English
Wednesday, Nov. 9, 2:00 PM, Galleria 4
Over the past three decades, the biggest public health threats to teenagers in the United States came from binge drinking, drunken driving, teenage pregnancy and smoking. Today, these have been replaced by soaring rates of mental health disorders—especially anxiety. In a rare public advisory in early 2022, the U.S. surgeon general warned of a devastating mental health crisis among adolescents, creating a national emergency.

Art Johnston and Pepe Peña are the owners of the iconic bar Sidetrack Chicago, and they’re also civil rights leaders who have been fighting for LGBTQ+ equality for decades. The film features rare archival footage of Sidetrack and Chicago’s LGBTQ community, as well as interviews with more than 30 people who were part of Johnston and Peña’s lives. Their activism is the focus of their struggle to live and love freely.

As Prescribed
Holly Hardman, U.S., 2022, 92 min., English
Thursday, Nov. 3, 4:00 PM, Galleria 2

For over fifty years, doctors have been prescribing benzodiazepines: Xanax, Valium, Klonopin, Ativan, Restoril. They are commonly thought of as safe – even innocuous – drugs that help take the edge off or offer a better night’s sleep. “As Described” documents a strikingly different narrative. The powerful personal stories told reveal the errant medical culture that continues to prescribe benzodiazepines without restraint. The result is the story of an under-the-radar epidemic that is devastating lives globally.

Saturday, Nov. 5, 4:40 PM, Galleria 2

Eventive

This richly told story, grounded by its emotionally vulnerable performances, is set against the backdrop of a lackluster circus ending its season in a vibrant small town. Poppy Valentine is a young adult performer pressured by the harsh demands of her father, the owner of the circus, as well as the daily grind of expectations and additional duties thrust upon her by the entire troupe. After their last show of the season as they pack everything up for the winter, she goes on a quick night out on the small town to let loose and have some fun with her few gal friends, who are also part of her own extended circus family. Later that night while on a late-night errand to get emergency gas for their power generator, she meets a shy, nerdy local boy and finds herself captivated by the quiet stability of small-town America, which then forces her to question everything that is her life. “Balloon Animal” is part of the New Filmmakers Forum Emerging Directors competition.

Be Our Guest
Diane Tsai, U.S., 2021, 90 min., English
Wednesday, Nov. 9, 2:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

In small-town New Hampshire, a young boy’s family opens their home to strangers in recovery while the opioid crisis rages around them. As he and his sisters enter adolescence, both the family and their guests are faced with difficult decisions about community, independence, and the real nature of altruism.
THE BIG BEND
Brett Wagner, U.S., 2021, 100 min., English
Saturday, Nov. 5, 2:15 PM, Galleria 4
Eventive
In this kooky, hilarious tale of a family visit gone every which way but loose, the Prices and the Talbotts meet for a long overdue reunion in the remote but picturesque West Texas desert. Events quickly don’t go anywhere near as planned. It appears that all four of the adults are harboring painful secrets and facing a multitude of private crises. With a wily escaped convict hiding out somewhere in the area, an aging water heater that is a character all its own, and a shrine to a dead toad created by one of the children, they open up to one another as they explore one of the wildest, hauntingly beautiful places in America. They test the boundaries of marriage, friendship, and parenthood, while doing their best to survive the experience. Winner of Best Feature at the 2022 Kansas City Film Festival.

THE BIGAMIST
Ida Lupino, U.S., 1953, 80 min., English
Sunday, Nov. 6, 7:00 PM, Webster U./Moore
“The Bigamist” was the final film produced by Lupino’s independent production company, The Filmakers (founded in 1949 by Lupino, Collier Young and the screenwriter Malvin Wald). It is both a social-issue and suspense film that upheld the company’s goal to entertain audiences while reflecting American culture back to itself. Defined by its moral ambiguity, the film embodies a number of the noir features that Lupino perfected in her previous films. Businessman Harry Graham (Edmond O’Brien) and his wife Eve (Joan Fontaine), are in the process of adopting a child. When a private investigator uncovers the fact that Graham has another wife, Phyllis (director Lupino), and a small child elsewhere, he confesses everything. In flashback, Graham tells of the strains in his marriage and how he found himself falling for the kind-hearted Phyllis while on a business trip. The film will be shown with the hour-long documentary “Ida Lupino: Gentlemen & Miss Lupino.”

BODY PARTS
Kristy Guevara-Flanagan, U.S., 2022, 86 min., English
Friday, Nov. 4, 4:00 PM, Galleria 2
An exploration of the female body in Hollywood—hyper-sexualized, under attack, exploited on- and off-screen. The film traces the making of sex scenes for mainstream media, the toll on those involved, and what this means for women and girls in the real world.
BOXCAR BERTHA

Martin Scorsese, U.S., 1972, 88 min., English

Saturday, Nov. 12, 1:30 PM, St. Louis Public Library

Based on “Sister of the Road,” the fictionalized autobiography of radical and transient Bertha Thompson written by physician Dr. Ben L. Reitman, 'Boxcar' Bertha Thompson (Barbara Hershey) is a labor organizer in Arkansas during the violence-filled Depression of the early 30s where she meets up with rabble-rousing union man Big Bill Shelly (David Carradine). As they team up to fight the corrupt railroad establishment, she is eventually sucked into a life of crime with him. The film launched a prolific period of filmmaking by director Martin Scorsese and was produced by Roger Corman. This screening is part of our Golden Anniversaries: 1972 series with an introduction and post film Q&A with Daniel Yezbick, Professor at St. Louis Community College Forest Park.

BROKER

Hirokazu Kore-eda, South Korea, 2022, 129 min., Korean

Sunday, Nov. 6, 7:30 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

The latest from Japanese director Hirokazu Kore-eda (“Shoplifters”). Sang-hyun runs a laundry shop but is saddled with gambling debt. One night in the pouring rain he and his pal Dong-soo secretly carry off an infant who was left outside near a baby box facility, where young mothers who cannot take care of their infants may leave them anonymously for adoption. When the baby’s mother, So-young, has second thoughts and unexpectedly returns for her son, Woo-sung, she realizes that her baby has been taken, and is about to call the police when the two men confess. Their claim that they stole the baby altruistically in order to find him a good home seems outrageous, but she joins them anyway on a bumpy quest to find worthy parents for the baby. Meanwhile, two female police detectives are secretly witnessing all of this as it unfolds and silently tailing them. Brought together by fate and an innocent child they share an unexpectedly sweet and heart-warming journey.

Friday, Nov. 11, 7:30 PM, Webster U./Moore

For over 25 years, the American television series “Reading Rainbow” set the standard for literary children’s television. Thanks to its uncondescending approach and its immersive documentary-style adventures, LeVar Burton and the “Reading Rainbow” creative team instilled a love of reading in millions of children.
CAROL & JOHNNY
Colin Barnicle, U.S., 2022, 90 min., English
Tuesday, Nov. 8, 2:30 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
Two of the most infamous bank robbers in American history, Carol Marie Williams and Johnny Madison Williams Jr., tell their love story in their own words. From the late 80s into the 90s, Carol and Johnny robbed 56 banks together across the American west until being caught in 1994.

Sophie Galibert, U.S., 2022, 76 min., English
Monday, Nov. 7, 4:15 PM, Galleria 2
A driftless, quirky and hopelessly uncommitted 25-year-old woman named Cherry discovers she has only 24 hours to make one of the most consequential decisions of her life—what to do about an unplanned pregnancy at the worst possible moment in her always chaotic life. Fired from her menial job at a costume shop, she roller skates around town, looking for insight from her boyfriend, friends, and family. Instead, she is constantly challenged and confronted with what it looks like to finally face adulthood and how others truly view her as constantly running away from it. The film was inspired by the real life experiences of director Sophie Galibert. Her film energetically explores her favorite subjects: desire and growing up, with wacky characters in a pop visual style. “Cherry” is part of the New Filmmakers Forum Emerging Directors competition and won the Audience Award at the 2022 Tribeca Film Festival.

CORNER OFFICE
Joachim Back, U.S., 2022, 101 min., English
Monday, Nov. 7, 6:45 PM, Galleria 4
A man begins a new job in a towering, nondescript concrete office building in the dead of winter. St. Louis native Jon Hamm is captivating as the mustachioed Orson, a rigid office worker so secure in his world view that he makes everyone around him question their own. Academy Award-winning filmmaker Joachim Back creates a puzzling, intriguing, and stylized office satire that keeps you riveted and questioning until the very end. Mostly narrated by Orson with monologues dripping with disdain for his colleagues and their “inferior” work ethic, particularly the man with whom he shares an opposing desk. When he discovers a large, well-appointed but unused executive office suite down the hall, his ego makes the leaps of faith that his destiny is to assume a much larger leadership role with his co-workers and boss. The trouble is that nobody else can find or see the office, which obviously is down the hall near the men’s room. Hamm is pitch-perfect, fantastically droll, and highly captivating from the opening shot to the climactic, jaw-dropping final act. With producers Matt Clarke and Dylan Collingwood

CORSAGE
Marie Kreutzer, Austria, 2022, 113 min., German, French, English, & Hungarian
Tuesday, Nov. 8, 7:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
In this stylish, fictionalized biopic Empress Elisabeth of Austria (Vicky Krieps, “Phantom Thread”) is idolized for her beauty and renowned for inspiring fashion trends. But in 1877, as “Sissi” celebrates her 40th birthday, she must fight to maintain her public image by lacing her corset tighter and tighter. While Elisabeth’s role has been reduced against her wishes to purely performative, her hunger for knowledge and zest for life make her more and more restless in Vienna. She travels to England and Bavaria, visiting former lovers and old friends, seeking the excitement and purpose of her youth. With a future of strictly ceremonial duties laid out in front of her, Elisabeth rebels against the hyperbolized image of herself and comes up with a plan to protect her legacy. Director Marie Kreutzer’s 2019 film “The Ground Beneath My Feet” screened in the 2019 SLIFF. “Corsage” was recently selected as Austria’s official entry for Best International Feature Film for the 95th Academy Awards..

THE COW WHO SANG A SONG INTO THE FUTURE
Francisca Alegria, Chile, 2022, 98 min., Spanish
Wednesday, Nov. 9, 7:00 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
A choir of creatures introduces a world delicately constructed by fantasy, mystery, and a sultry magical realism in director Francisca Alegría’s poignant, stunning debut feature. It begins in a river in southern Chile where fish are dying due to pollution from a nearby factory. Amid their floating bodies, long-deceased Magdalena bubbles up to the surface gasping for air, bringing with her old wounds and a wave of family secrets. This shocking return sends her widowed husband into turmoil and prompts their daughter Cecilia to return home to the family’s dairy farm with her own children. Magdalena’s presence reverberates strongly amongst her family, instigating fits of laughter and despair in equal measure with all but Cecilia’s eldest child, who finds much-needed comfort in their grandmother’s love and unconditional understanding during a time of transition. A lyrical rumination on family, nature, renewal, and resurrection, “The Cow Who Sang A Song Into The Future” is an ambitious proposal for acceptance and healing, suggesting that the dead return when they are most needed.

Deep in the jungle of Central Vietnam lies the largest cave passage in the world—Hang Son Doong, a place of spectacular beauty. When a proposed cable car system threatens to destroy the cave’s ecosystem, the local community is divided over the benefits the development would bring. Beautifully shot and scored, “A Crack In The Mountain” is a powerful exposé about how the best of intentions could ultimately lead to one of the world’s greatest natural wonders being trampled for money.
CROUCHING TIGER, HIDDEN DRAGON
Wo hu cang long
Ang Lee, China, Taiwan & Hong Kong, U.S., 2000, 120 min., Mandarin
Friday, Nov. 11, 7:00 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
Two master warriors (Chow Yun-fat and Michelle Yeoh) are faced with their greatest challenge when the legendary and treasured Green Destiny sword is stolen. A young female aristocrat (Zhang Ziyi) prepares for an arranged marriage, but soon reveals her superior fighting talents and her deeply romantic past. As each warrior battles for justice, they come face to face with their worst enemy—and the inescapable, enduring power of love. Set against 19th-century China’s breathtaking landscape, “Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon” is the action-packed, box office smash from acclaimed director Ang Lee (“Sense and Sensibility,” “The Ice Storm”) featuring stunning martial arts choreography by Yuen Wo-ping (“The Matrix”). This film was selected to help celebrate the 30th anniversary of longtime SLIFF partner Sony Picture Classics.

Tyra Johnson is a devoted and determined mother fighting to maintain her children’s education in one of the most poverty-stricken zip codes in the country hard hit by the Covid-19 pandemic. With director Aisha Sultan

Shown with Benny (David Dominguez & Troy Vetri, U.S., 2022, 15 min., English) An intimate portrait of an aging New York City ticket scalper navigating his way through the Covid-19 pandemic, exploring income inequality, incarceration, and poverty in America. The Blessing (Ziyao Liu, China, 2022, 6 min., English & Mandarin) Unable to attend her mother’s wedding in China due to the pandemic, a Chinese international student struggles to make a video to send her blessing. The Panola Project (Rachael DeCruz & Jeremy S. Levine, U.S., 2021, 17 min., English) A study of the heroic efforts of Dorothy Oliver to keep her small town of Panola, Alabama safe from Covid-19, this is a chronicle of how an often-overlooked rural Black community came together in creative ways to survive. Unimaginable (Angela Cohen, 2021, 16 min., English) Amidst an unprecedented pandemic, teenagers faced a staggering rise in mental health issues and a precarious, uncertain future. This uplifting documentary provides surprising insights into the creative coping mechanisms of three socioeconomically and racially disparate teens during this period of isolation.

EMPIRE OF LIGHT
Sam Mendes, U.K., 2022, 119 min.
Thursday, Nov. 3, 7:00 PM, Galleria 4
Working again with the Oscar®-winning cinematographer Roger Deakins, director Sam Mendes has created a rich, complex celebration that, at its core, reminds us how music and cinema can bring us together, even as the world drives us apart. This superb love letter to cinema features a stellar cast led by Academy Award-winner Olivia Colman, BAFTA winner Micheal Ward, and Academy Award-winner Colin Firth. Mendes fills his superbly cast, deeply personal drama with surprises, all emerging from an aging cinema in a working-class town in 1980s England. Hilary (Colman) is a lonely single woman running the ticket booth where she meets fellow cinephile Stephen. Though on its surface a love story, it is ultimately not what you might expect, as Mendes sidesteps the expected nostalgia to instead follow the credo written on the cinema’s walls: “Find in light where darkness lies.” The film leads us through the characters’ profound struggles of lives in flux, both internally and with a society encountering massive cultural and economic shifts in the non-cinematic real world.”
ENYS MEN
Mark Jenkin, U.K., 2022, 91 min., English
Monday, Nov. 7, 7:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
Impressively shot in grainy 16mm and set in 1973 on an uninhabited island off the Cornish coast, a wildlife volunteer’s daily observations of a rare flower turn into a metaphysical journey that forces her, and the viewer, to question what is real and what is a nightmare. The phrase ‘Enys Men’ means ‘The Island of Stone’ in Cornish, and a harsh stony place it is in the sophomore feature of director Mark Jenkin. The woman is self-sufficient, unchanging, painstakingly meticulous in her work, and enjoys reading a survival manual in her spare time. The audience observes her record every routine of her precise daily life. She becomes obsessed in both her waking and dream states by glimpses of an accident and sea tragedy that took place on the island. Details are sometimes heard via the radio, but is it a tragedy that has already happened, or will happen. The researcher patiently, meticulously continues her work even when fantasy and hallucinations slowly creep in to alter the confines of her perception of what is the truth.

FREEDOM’S PATH
Brett Smith, U.S., 2021, 125 min., English
Saturday, Nov. 5, 7:30 PM, Galleria 2
“Glory” meets “Dances with Wolves” in this riveting and ambitious first feature that was twelve years in the making. When a Union soldier flees from his first bloody battle, injured and afraid, rescue comes unexpectedly from Kitch, a free young black man and his band of friends. Risking everything, Kitch takes William deep into the woods to the safety of his adopted home. It is here that William discovers Kitch is a part of a secret, heroic community of freed slaves, who run a portion of the Underground Railroad. However, when a ruthless and desperate slave catcher discovers their underground network, he conspires to bring it burning down to the ground. Veteran African-American character actors Thomas Jefferson Byrd and Carol Sutton both sadly passed away during the post-production process of completing the film. “Freedom’s Path” is part of the New Filmmakers Forum Emerging Directors competition. Lionel Bernardin, France, 2021, 92 min., French

Monday, Nov. 7, 12:05 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

Eventive

In a picturesque small town in rural France, Alex is a former professional boxer who lives quietly as a worker for a concrete materials company. Late one night, chased by armed men, his twin sister bangs on his door with an African migrant and his young daughter in tow. Alex is conflicted due to legal troubles from similar situations in the past, but reluctantly agrees to help to hide them, unaware that they are keenly sought by both the police and some local gangsters. Under great financial pressure due to an ailing father and intense pressure from the head of the criminal gang he detests, he finds himself in an unwinnable spiral with no choice but to start competing once more in illegal, fixed boxing matches to earn money for his father and to keep the migrant family safe. This gritty, powerful film adeptly juxtaposes the striking beauty to the rural area where Alex lives with the harshness of the plant where he works and the forced brutality of the violence he must now navigate. With actor Clément Lagouarde

Stefan Ruzowitzky, Australia/Luxembourg, 2021, 99 min., German

Sunday, Nov. 13, 12:05 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

From Stefan Ruzowitzky, director of Oscar®-winning film “The Counterfeiters,” comes this visually audacious work of expressionistic cinema in the visual style of F.W. Murnau’s “The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari” brought to the 21st-century through near exclusive use of blue screen technology. The year is 1920, the Austro-Hungarian Empire has fallen, and what remains has devolved into social unrest and political turmoil. Peter Perg, a soldier of the Great War, returns to Vienna only to realize the place he once called home is now unfamiliar to him. Having spent years as a prisoner of war, Perg is disillusioned by this strange, new city distorted by the nightmares of war. His world is further upended when a gruesome series of murders targeting veterans begins to unfold. Feeling connected to the victims, Perg decides to investigate the mysterious crimes. A stranger in his own city, the looming threat of a serial killer begins to take its toll on him. “Hinterland” was the winner of the Audience Award at the 2021 Locarno International Film Festival.

HIS GIRL FRIDAY

NARRATIVE

Howard Hawks, U.S., 1940, 92 min., English

Saturday, Nov. 12, 7:30 PM, Webster U./Moore

SLIFF is proud to present Howard Hawks’ 1940 comedy classic set in the world of a bustling city daily newspaper as part of our tribute to recently retired, former Cinema St. Louis executive director Cliff Froehlich, who will receive the Lifetime Achievement Award. Hawks is one of his favorite directors and this screwball classic perfectly blends his passion for film with a nod to his other former life, that of a journalist. When hard-charging New York newspaper editor Walter Burns (Cary Grant) discovers that his ex-wife, investigative reporter Hildy Johnson (Rosalind Russell), has gotten engaged to milquetoast insurance agent Bruce Baldwin (Ralph Bellamy), he unsuccessfully tries to lure her away from what he considers an unimaginably tame domestic life by dangling a big story under her nose about political ties to the impending execution of a notorious convicted murderer. Hildy rightfully doesn’t trust Walter, but the lure of what potentially may become the biggest scoop in years may prove to be too much for Hildy to resist, especially if it ends up being an exclusive.
HOLY SPIDER
Ali Abbasi, Denmark/France/Germany/Sweden, 2022, 116 min., Persian
Thursday, Nov. 10, 7:00 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

Based on the true story of the ‘Spider Killer’ Saeed Hanaei, who saw himself as on a mission from God as he killed 16 women between 2000 and 2001. In Iran’s spiritual capital, Mashhad, a dangerous and brutal cat-and-mouse-game unfolds between the murderer and a female journalist seeking justice. By day Saeed is a worker, doting family man, veteran of the Iran/Iraq War, and a devout Shia Muslim. He appears to live simply with his wife Fatima and two children, but by night he cruises through seedy alleyways on motorcycle with a ‘holy’ crusade to cleanse his nation of immorality. As part of his quest, he lures unwitting sex workers to their deaths and dumps their bodies, acts that feed a growing media frenzy. With no end in sight to the slayings, a Tehran-based journalist, Rahimi, arrives on the scene, determined to uncover the killer’s identity. As she draws closer to exposing his crimes, the opportunity for justice grows harder to attain when the murderer is embraced by many as a cultural hero.

THE HORIZON
L’Horizon
Emilie Carpentier, France, 2021, 85 min., French
Wednesday, Nov. 9, 12:05 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
Like most of her friends in the housing projects outside Paris, eighteen-year-old Adja’s focus is on having fun and getting through her internship. But a fight over the farmland near her housing estate encroaches on her carefree life: the government plans to evict the farmers from their land to build a large leisure complex. A group of activists have occupied the farmland and turned it into a “ZAD,” a zone to defend from environmentally reckless expansion. Adja and her Influencer friend Sabira joke that the activists are tree-hugging hippies, but Adja can’t deny how she feels about Arthur, a farmer’s son on the front lines of the fight. This charming tale of first love between two young people from different backgrounds is underscored by the dawning of political and social awareness at the cusp of maturity. Adja’s gradual decision to step up and fight for her future pays tribute to the courage of a new generation for whom the fight for environmental justice is an urgent matter of survival.

JEREMIAH JOHNSON

Sunday, Nov. 13, 1:30 PM, St. Louis Public Library

After a stint in the Army in the mid-nineteenth century Jeremiah Johnson decides to live a life of solitude and peace by living with nature in the frontier mountains of the American west. This plan entails finding land upon which to build a house. This quest ends much differently than what he envisioned as he routinely requires the assistance of others to help find his footing. In turn he amasses a number of acquaintances along the way. Some of these new relationships provide him with the knowledge of how to co-exist with some of the many Indian tribes in the area, such as the Crow, on whose land he decides to homestead. But an act by Jeremiah upon a request by the U.S. Cavalry leads to a chain of events that may forever change the peaceful coexistence he worked so hard to achieve with his neighbors and their sacred lands. This screening is part of our Golden Anniversaries: 1972 series with an introduction and post film Q&A with local film critic Lynn Venhaus. With Lynn Venhaus, local film critic

THE JUSTICE OF BUNNY KING

Gaysorn Thavat, New Zealand, 2021, 101 min., English

Saturday, Nov. 12, 2:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

Bunny King is a proud homeless woman who struggles to make ends meet washing cars at intersections. Her children are in foster care and she sleeps at her sister- and brother-in-law’s house taking care of his mother, their children, and doing household chores. She desperately searches for a house to be reunited with her children, with whom she can currently only meet in supervised visits. When she notices her brother-in-law sexually abusing his step-daughter, she confronts him and is thrown out of his house. After finding a place to sleep at a co-worker’s home, she steals her brother-in-law’s car and along with her niece sets off to find her own children to celebrate her daughter’s birthday, leading to a heartbreaking series of subsequent actions. Bunny is an enigmatic anti-hero you can’t help but root for in her quest for normalcy and family. Told with anger, conviction, and occasional dark humor, the film sharply and unapologetically focuses on a harsh and cruel society that would rather imagine people like Bunny are merely reaping what they sow.

_Mario Martone, Italy, 2021, 133 min., Italian & Neapolitan_
Saturday, Nov. 5, 7:30 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
In Naples circa 1904 Italian theater is thriving, and comic actor Eduardo Scarpetta is the box office king. Known in the Neapolitan theater for his cheeky alter egos, his larger-than-life stage productions were matched only by his eccentric personal life. Composed of wives, partners, lovers, and a host of both legitimate and illegitimate children including famed Neapolitan playwright Eduardo De Filippo, Scarpetta’s home situation often resembled one of his absurdist comedies more than a traditional family. At the height of his popularity, the comedian risked everything by staging a parody of the great Italian poet, Gabriele D'Annunzio. Booed and hissed from the stage by younger rivals, Scarpetta was sued for plagiarism, despite his claim to have had verbal permission from the writer, leading to the first ever copyright lawsuit in Italy. Despite these serious legal troubles and familial strife, Scarpetta fought not only for his craft but for his legacy as one of the great thespians of Italian theater. Lush visuals and sumptuous costume design make this colorful dramedy a glorious feast for the senses.

LAND OF GOLD
_Nardeep Khurmi, U.S., 2022, 105 min., English & Spanish_
Sunday, Nov. 6, 7:15 PM, Galleria 2
First-generation Punjabi-American truck driver Kiran (director Nardeep Khurmi) is about to become a father, but his chronic irresponsibility is alienating everyone close to him. Case in point is his last-minute decision to take one last cross-country haul. When he hears pounding on a shipping container and finds a young, undocumented Mexican-American girl named Elena inside, his already tumultuous life takes a drastic turn as he seeks to reunite her with her family. Over the arduous journey, the pair evade the police while feuding and bonding over music, paint swatches, and what it means to be seen as an “other” in white America. It is ultimately profoundly poignant with a timely lens focused on solidarity, difference, and found family. Bursting with heart, conviction, and power, the film maximizes the potential in its premise to become something much greater than the sum of its parts. “Land of Gold” was the recipient of the 2021 ATT Untold Stories grand prize, 2021 Fall Screencraft Film Fund, and is part of the New Filmmakers Forum Emerging Directors competition. LINES OF ESCAPES
Lignes de fuite
Catherine Chabot, Miryam Bouchard, Canada, 2022, 95 min., French
Friday, Nov. 11, 2:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
Eventive
Three former high school friends from Montreal and their partners are reuniting for a weekend of bar hopping a little over a decade after they graduated. The audience does not truly know what bound them together back in high school, but people change and the three women are clearly in very different places now in their lives. As the night wears on, they form an increasingly discordant group. Alcohol-infused, animated discussions about their generation, self-doubt and the fate of humanity are just some of the elements interspersed throughout the evening, where their friendships are put to the ultimate test. Through Audrey, Sabina, and Valerie we witness strong, yet vulnerable, women in moments of celebration and heartbreak. Like many stage to screen adaptations the focus is on the words and characters rather than showy camera work and editing, but the translation to the big screen works quite effectively in concert with the magnificent performances by all the actors. Co-director Catherine Chabot originally wrote the script for the stage, and plays one of the three leads, Audrey.

LIVING
Oliver Hermanus, U.K., 2022, 102 min., English
Sunday, Nov. 13, 2:45 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
In a subtly textured remake of Akira Kurosawa’s 1952 classic “Ikiru,” a British bureaucrat (Bill Nighy) questions his life choices after receiving a terminal diagnosis. Mr. Williams is a buttoned-down, stereotypical English gentleman with a mid-level bureaucratic job in postwar London. Through his taciturn manner he lets his staff know that maintaining the status quo is more important than progress. When he receives the dire news from his doctor, the tightly held reins of his prosaic life loosen. He realizes that he isn’t facing death; he’s actually been living it. In the clumsy manner of one who is unpracticed in these things, he slowly begins putting work aside for new experiences. In charmingly awkward sequences, Nighy beautifully captures the specific lead-up to the end of life and the inevitably questions: ‘Did I accomplish anything?’ and ‘Will I leave anything behind?’ While the heart of the film is Nighy’s understated, elegant lead performance, equally as masterful is the profound sense of time and place created by the craft elements, notably production design, costumes, and gorgeous cinematography.
LONG FLAT BALLS III: BROKEN PROMISES
Lange Flate Ballær III
Harald Johan Zwart, Norway, 2022, 103 min., English, Lithuanian, & Norwegian
Friday, Nov. 4, 2:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
Eventive
This Norwegian comedy is the third in a series of the zany misadventures involving six mechanics from Fredrikstad who are fervently European football fans. In prior editions they caused major shenanigans at the World Cup and later saved Norway itself from foreign invaders, but It does not matter one bit that you might be a little late to the “Long Flat Balls” party. In this riotously funny new installment their charming ringleader Petter wants to finally marry his beloved Laila after waiting well over a decade, but must first conclude some unfinished business from his past somewhere in the Eastern Bloc. To win back the love of his life, Petter and his gang of soccer-mad friends embark on a madcap journey to a wildly lawless destination to set things straight, risking life and prison with an ingenious but outrageous booze smuggling scheme involving a trailer full of illegal Lithuanian alcohol. You will giggle and laugh from beginning to end with a road movie inhabited by these fiercely loyal, often drunken, group of oddballs.

THE LOST KING
Sunday, Nov. 6, 5:00 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
In 2012, having been lost for over 500 years, the remains of King Richard III were discovered beneath a carpark in Leicester. “The Lost King” is the life-affirming true story of the passionate woman who refused to be ignored. Amateur historian Philippa Langley (Sally Hawkins) is at a crossroads: her job doesn’t respect her, her marriage has fizzled and her chronic fatigue is mostly misunderstood by everyone around her. When she and one of her sons take in a show of “Richard III,” Philippa is so struck by how the world sees him, that she basically ditches the rest of her life to learn more about the embattled king. Her singular focus becomes finding Richard’s body and setting right his legacy in the process despite the utter incomprehension by her friends and family, and with profound skepticism by experts and academics alike. This ponderous tale of scholarly obsession and search for personal identity was directed by Stephen Frears and written by his frequent collaborator Steve Coogan, who co-stars as Phillpa’s husband John.

A LOVE LETTER TO BRIAN, LESLEY, AND MICHELLE
Hettie Barnhill, U.S., 2021, 62 min., English
Saturday, Nov. 12, 4:00 PM, Washington U./Brown
This thought-provoking experimental feature about Black lives covers topics such as white fragility, diversity, inclusion, anti-Blackness, anti-queerness, and racial fear, forcing viewers to step outside of their own experience and into bodies that continue to be brutalized, objectified, and minimized within America. The film will be shown with another Black dance-themed film “We’re All Pretty Broken.” With director Hettie Barnhill
LOVE OF THE GAME
Niek Theelen, Canada, 2021, 85 min., English

MARS ONE
Marte Um
Gabriel Martins, Brazil, 2022, 115 min., Portuguese
Saturday, Nov. 5, 4:45 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
The Martins are optimistic dreamers, quietly leading their lives on the margins of a major Brazilian city following the disappointing election of a far-right extremist president. A lower-middle-class Black family, they feel the strain of their new reality as the political dust settles. Tércia, the mother, reinterprets her world after an unexpected encounter leaves her wondering if she’s cursed. Her husband, Wellington, puts all of his hopes into the soccer career of their son, Deivinho, who reluctantly follows his father’s ambitions despite the boy secretly aspiring to study astrophysics and colonize Mars as well as his passionate goal to attend a big space-related event in another city. Meanwhile, their older daughter, Eunice, falls in love with a free-spirited young woman and ponders whether it’s time to leave home and family. “Mars One” was recently selected as Brazil’s official entry for Best International Feature Film for the 95th Academy Awards.
MEMORIES OF MY FATHER
El olvido que seremos

Fernando Trueba, Colombia, 2020, 138 min., Spanish, Italian, & English
Friday, Nov. 4, 7:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

“Memories of My Father” follows the life of Héctor Abad Gómez, a doctor and a human rights activist concerned with the well being of his own children and the children of the underprivileged classes in the violent 1970s era in Medellin, Colombia. This is an intimate story seen through the eyes of his son, Héctor Abad Facilione, one of the most renowned writers in contemporary Colombia. The father seeks to instill a vitality and creativity that are the result of a progressive education based on tolerance and love. Driven by sadness and rage when cancer takes the life of one of his daughters, Héctor devotes himself to the social and political causes of the time, with little regard to his personal safety. This touching and moving biopic unfolds across two time periods, the mid-eighties, seen in black and white, and the bulk of the story during Héctor Jr.’s childhood shot in deep, lush color. Director Trueba’s 1992 film “Belle Epoque” starring a young Penelope Cruz won the Best Foreign Language Film Oscar® in 1994.

THE MOON & BACK
Leah Bleich, U.S., 2022, 74 min., English
Sunday, Nov. 6, 4:30 PM, Galleria 2
Eventive

“The Moon & Back” is a light-hearted, coming-of-age dramedy whose director, Lech Bleich, was one of five filmmakers selected for “The Six Feet Apart Experiment,” a ground-breaking filmmaking competition from Wayfarer Studios. One year after her father’s death, high school senior Lydia Gilbert feels completely lost until she discovers something quite unexpected: “Space Chronicles,” the screenplay for a $200M+ space opera that was written long ago by her late father. Equipped with just a VHS camera, zero filmmaking knowledge, some pocket change, and a nerdy guy pal she coerces into helping with her grand plans, Lydia decides to make this script a reality. The project quickly becomes much bigger than she thought it would be. Things begin to unravel as the would-be young director juggles the film, her relationship with her supremely patient mother (Missi Pyle), and an eager guidance counselor who tries to help with her ambitious college admissions hinging in part on the outcome of the chaotic film project. This film is part of the New Filmmakers Forum Emerging Directors competition. With director Leah Bleich

MY NAME IS ANDREA
Pratibha Parmar, U.S., 2022, 90 min., English
Friday, Nov. 4, 5:00 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

A hybrid documentary drama based on the life of writer Andrea Dworkin, who called out sexism—with revolutionary flair—decades before #MeToo. Shaped by the values of justice and equality learned from the civil rights movement as a young girl, Dworkin observed how male chauvinism and discrimination impacted every woman’s daily experience, and then dared to demand that women be seen as equals.
MY SISTER LIV
Alan Hicks, Australia, 2022, 70 min., English

Friday, Nov. 11, 4:30 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

From Grammy Award-winning director Alan Hicks and Academy Award-winning producer Paula DuPré Pesmen, this feature documentary follows the inseparable sisters Tess and Liv. Growing up with the pressures of social media, depression and body dysmorphia, young Liv endures occasional suicidal thoughts. The film takes us into the intimate journey of a young life on the edge, and ultimately a family finding healing through hope.

Shown with STIGMA | STAY (Ariana Alejandra Gibson, U.S., 2021, 33 min., English) An inspiring story of two parents whose unconditional love brought their teenage son back from the brink of suicide. When Jim and Jennifer’s 8-year-old son, Heyden, expressed suicidal thoughts, they began a complex journey of navigating the U.S. healthcare and education systems to find him the support he needed. A must-watch for any parent with teenagers.

MYSTERIES
I misteri

Mauro Maugeri, Daniele Greco, Italy, 2022, 71 min., No Dialogue

Tuesday, Nov. 8, 4:45 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

Four popular Sicilian feasts illustrate ancient traditions and spectacular rites, often not well known, or considered dangerous by the public order. Throughout the year, the communities of farmers or fishermen spend several months preparing for these events, finding in them the full expression of their collective identity. The ancestral link with the territory is identified with a specific natural element representative of that place.

Shown with Heirloom (Michela Maria, U.S., 2022, 28 min., English) Heirloom tells the story of a mother and daughter who set out to discover why Italian Americans love to garden. Along their journey, they meet notable members of the Italian American community (like Isabella Rossellini), and travel to Italy to learn.

NANNY
Nikyatu Jusu, U.S., 2022, 97 min.

Sunday, Nov. 6, 4:45 PM, Galleria 4

Aisha, an undocumented Senegalese immigrant, lands a job as the nanny of a wealthy Manhattan couple. While she easily wins the affection of their young daughter Rose, she becomes a pawn in the couple’s facade of a marriage and is forced to confront a concealed truth that threatens to shatter her precarious version of the American Dream. The mother (Michelle Monaghan) is as controlling as the dad is disillusioned and woke. Haunted by the absence of the young son she left behind in Senegal, Aisha hopes her job will afford her the chance to bring him to the U.S. and share in the life she is piecing together. As his arrival approaches, a supernatural presence begins to invade both her dreams and her reality. As envisioned by writer-director Nikyatu Jusu and brilliantly embodied by actress Anna Diop, the story elegantly weaves in supernatural entities derived from West African folklore, spinning this electrifying film into a singular genre all its own, with horrors specifically drawn from Aisha’s life and legacy.
A NEW HOME

Joseph Puleo, U.S., 2022, 57 min., English

Sunday, Nov. 6, 2:15 PM, Galleria 4

This informative documentary tells the story of the Bosnian refugees who fled to St. Louis in the early '90s, examining their impact on our community and offering a retrospective overview of the war and resulting genocide. The film features interviews with such local authorities as Anna Crosslin, who headed the International Institute as it facilitated the massive resettlement effort, and former St. Louis Mayor Francis Slay. With director Joe Puleo and local subjects.

Wednesday, Nov. 9, 7:30 PM, Contemporary Art Museum

Eventive

Women and men board a mysterious train that takes them to a suspended bridge between heaven and earth. Some try to understand the reason for their presence in this place, others speak of their hopes and fears; earthly memories sometimes surface. Everyone is walking towards a mysterious goal: the presumed end of the bridge—but does it really exist?
ONCE UPON A TIME IN THE FUTURE: 2121
Bir Zamanlar Gelecek: 2121
Serpil Altin, Turkey, 2022, 92 min., Turkish
Monday, Nov. 7, 5:00 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
In the not too distant future of the year 2121, the earth has become uninhabitable due to climate crises and famine. The few survivors have formed colonies and start to live in underground blocks. According to “The Scarcity Laws” of the hilariously zealous and dictatorial Young Administration (eerily reminiscent of the Hitler Youth) that controls this complex and highly regulated system, old generations must be destroyed in exchange for new lives to keep the status quo of the population and their meager food stores in control. The life of a family that lives in one of the blocks is suddenly changed by the imminent arrival of a new baby they are expecting. On the surface a seemingly bleak tale that is surprisingly funny at times with a hopeful nod for the resilience of humankind. The dystopian world realized in this highly unique first feature is surely a vision of great things to come from female Turkish first-time director Serpil Altin.

ONE AND FOUR
Jigme Trinley, China, 2021, 88 min., Putonghua & Tibetan
Saturday, Nov. 12, 5:00 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
Late one afternoon as a fierce blizzard is about to hit a remote, sprawling forest on a vast Tibetan Plateau, three uninvited guests one by one storm into a lonely and isolated forest ranger’s small wooden cabin. The ranger struggles to figure out who is who and who is telling the truth as the incident quickly becomes highly volatile and complicated. The ranger becomes involved in a dangerous cat and mouse game between some possibly shady police officers and poachers who they had allegedly been chasing in the forest. Echoing the snowy “locked room” aesthetic of Tanantino’s “The Hateful Eight,” this taut thriller will keep you on the edge of your seat as you swear you can also feel the bitter cold. The film was produced by director Jigme Trinley’s father, acclaimed Tibetan filmmaker Pema Tseden. Tseden’s film “Jinpa” screened in the 2021 SLIFF. “One and Four” stars Tibetan actor Jinpa as the wily, quiet and complex forest ranger.

OUR FATHER, THE DEVIL
Mon père, le diable
Ellie Foumbi, France, 2022, 108 min., French
Sunday, Nov. 6, 2:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
An African immigrant’s quiet existence in a small mountain town in the south of France is upended by the arrival of an African priest, whom she recognizes from her past. Marie is a former child soldier who now works as the kitchen manager of a retirement home. Flashbacks to her past violent life are common and she is still living with a great deal of trauma. When she crosses paths with a new Catholic priest at the home, she recognizes the voice as someone who had forced her into the life of a child soldier. Overwhelmed by past traumas, Marie seeks a cruel revenge against him with many twists and turns. Director Ellie Foumbi succeeds in shining a light on an aspect of war that’s seldom discussed, which is the impact of war on children that is further complicated when they themselves become the perpetrators of violence and how they ultimately process the atrocities they witnessed and committed. The film won the Audience Award Best Narrative at the 2022 Tribeca Film Festival.

PINBALL: THE MAN WHO SAVED THE GAME
Austin Bragg & Meredith Bragg, U.S., 2022, 90 min., English
Wednesday, Nov. 9, 7:00 PM, Galleria 4

Eventive

This breezy biopic tells the lively true story of Roger Sharpe, the journalist, writer, and real-life pinball wizard who in 1976 single-handedly helped to overturn New York City’s 35-year, politically motivated ban on pinball machines. After graduating from the University of Wisconsin with a degree in marketing in the early 70s, Sharpe moved from Chicago to New York and lucked into a position as an editor with GQ Magazine. He gained notoriety following a 1976 New York hearing where he provided a demonstration to members of the Manhattan City Council, that pinball was a game of skill rather than a game of chance, and therefore not subject to legal prohibitions on gambling. Following Sharpe’s demonstration, the council voted unanimously to lift the longtime existing ban on pinball. Narrated in part by Sharpe himself, this brisk and colorful story will have you on tilt cheering for the “little guy” all the way through the end, even if we already know there’s an extra game. With producer Lana Link
PINK FLAMINGOS
John Waters, U.S., 1972, 93 min., English
Sunday, Nov. 13, 7:00 PM, Webster U./Moore
Renowned indie director John Waters, the “King of Filth,” called this outrageous schlock classic “An Exercise in Poor Taste.” Notorious Baltimore criminal and underground figure Babs Johnson (Divine) goes up against a sleazy married couple who make a passionate attempt to humiliate her and seize her tabloid-given title as “The Filthiest Person Alive.” Sleaze queen Babs lives in a caravan with her mad hippie son Crackers and her egg-loving, mentally challenged mother Mama Edie, while trying to rest quietly on their laurels as 'the filthiest people alive'. But fierce competition is brewing in the form of Connie (Mink Stole) and Raymond Marble, who sell heroin to schoolchildren and kidnap and impregnate female hitchhikers, then sell the babies to lesbian couples. Finally, they challenge Divine directly, and an epic, disgusting battle for the top prize commences. This film is part of our “Golden Anniversaries: 1972” series on its 50th anniversary. Happy Birthday, Babs! With Webster Film Series director Pete Timmermann

THE PINK LAGOON
Juan Arce & Francisco Gallo, Mexico, 2022, 83 min., Spanish
Saturday, Nov. 5, 2:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
Two distant siblings, two different worlds. A journey of familial reconnection, positivity, and valuing the different ways of seeing the world. Mariana is a fiercely independent, twenty-something young woman with Down Syndrome who loves ballet, art, and living her best life. When invited to participate in a publicly funded dance exhibition in another city, she visits her uptight, estranged brother Arturo with her free-spirited ballet teacher Camila in tow to ask for some assistance getting there. Initially put out and resistant to doing anything much to help that would distract him from his own life and high-strung fiancee, he can’t help but to be swept up by his sister’s profound dignity, sincerity for the world in general, and true passion for dance. The cadence and sweet rhythms of the storytelling along with the magnificent performance of lead actress Monica Arce as Mariana will make viewers of this film moved and quite happy to have had the experience. With co-directors Juan Arce and Francisco Gallo, and lead actress Monica Arce.

Brett A. Schwartz, U.S., 2022, 87 min., English
Friday, Nov. 4, 7:00 PM, Washington U./Brown
Friday, Nov. 11, 7:00 PM, SIUE
Chicago’s West Side epitomizes the violent, struggling city seen daily in the media. “Raised Up West Side” peels back the layers, exposing the deep-seated segregation, food insecurity, and mass incarceration that continue to shape predominantly Black neighborhoods. The film illustrates the fierce tenacity required to change the narrative—and change lives. With director Brett Schwartz.

REMEMBER ME: THE MAHALIA JACKSON STORY
Denise Dowse, U.S., 2021, 82 min., English
Tuesday, Nov. 8, 7:15 PM, Galleria 2
Take an unforgettable journey with one of the most iconic African-American trailblazing singers in history, Mahalia Jackson. “Remember Me” is a soaring, musical look at the life of the renowned Gospel singer, her rise and challenges in the music industry, her unbreakable bond with Dr. Martin Luther King (Columbus Short), and her dramatic impact on the Civil Rights Movement. This moving and entertaining film gives an enlightening view of a celebrated singer trying to help break down the barriers of social injustice one note at a time during a pivotal time in our own history. A number of actresses portray Jackson at various stages of her life and career, but it’s the main performance by Grammy-nominated artist Ledisi who truly sparkles as the singer in her adult years.

“All I can say is that I saw it, and it is the truth.” In a virtuoso solo performance, Academy Award nominee David Strathairn portrays Polish soldier, resistance-fighter, and diplomat Jan Karski in this genre-defying true story of a reluctant World War II hero and Holocaust witness. After surviving the devastation of the Blitzkrieg, Karski swears allegiance to the Polish Underground and risks his life to carry the first eyewitness reports of war-torn Poland to the Western world, and ultimately, the Oval Office. Escaping a Gestapo prison, bearing witness to the despair of the Warsaw ghetto and confronted by the inhumanity of a death camp, Karski endures unspeakable mental anguish and physical torture to stand tall in the halls of power and speak the truth. Strathairn captures the complexity and legacy of this self-described “insignificant, little man” whose timely story of moral courage and individual responsibility can still shake the conscience of the world.

Constance Meyer, France, 2021, 95 min., French

Saturday, Nov. 5, 12:05 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

With this closely observed portrait of an aging French film star and the intense young Black woman he hires as his new bodyguard, first-time feature writer-director Constance Meyer breathes new life into the odd couple theme, bearing witness to a passing of the torch from the legendary Gérard Depardieu to his co-star, the formidable young actress Déborah Lukumuéna. Film fans will rejoice to see Depardieu return to the kind of shockingly vulnerable performance that made his reputation many decades ago, but the real thrill, however, is to see Lukumuéna go head to head with him. Depardieu is here at his most generous, sensitive best, lending his legendary charisma to a warts and all portrait of Georges, a capricious, out of touch superstar who realizes how disconnected from the world he has become through his unexpected bond with Lukumuéna’s intensely guarded, no-nonsense private security agent Aïssa. Shaping both performances, Meyer’s assured direction shows a sharp eye for detail and a subtle empathy that gives this film about urban loneliness an unexpected warmth.

THE SEDUCTION OF MIMI

Mimi metallurgico ferito nell’onor

Lina Wertmüller, Italy, 1972, 121 min., Italian

Saturday, Nov. 5, 1:30 PM, St. Louis Public Library

After voting against the powerful Mafia candidate in Sicily, in what he thought was a secret ballot, impecunious Mimi finds himself with his back to the wall. Desperate, and having no one to turn to, Mimi abandons his wife Rosalia and relocates to the bustling city of Turin, only to fall for a beautiful Trotskyist named Fiore. One child later, as one thing leads to another, Mimi gradually realizes that he is not ready to accept the new social morals that prevail in the industrialized north, again catching the Mafia’s attention. Now, political beliefs, loyalty, infidelity, and revenge become inextricably intertwined, and again, Mimi is left with nothing, having no other choice but to return to Sicily. But can he keep his life in Turin secret? Directed by acclaimed Italian director Lina Wertmüller, this screening is part of our Golden Anniversaries: 1972 series with an introduction and post film.

SHE SAID

Maria Schrader, U.S., 2022, 135 min., English

Tuesday, Nov. 8, 7:00 PM, Galleria 4

“She Said” details how New York Times reporters Megan Twohey (Carey Mulligan) and Jodi Kantor (Zoe Kazan) broke one of the most important stories of a generation, shattering decades of silence around the subject of sexual harassment in Hollywood. Based on Kantor and Twohey’s investigation, with editor Rebecca Corbett and their best-selling book about that investigation, the film examines the journey of reporters and editors engaged in the relentless pursuit of the truth and highlights the courage of survivors and witnesses who chose to come forward to stop a serial predator in his tracks. Together, their commitment sparked a national conversation, helped propel the #MeToo movement, and fueled a reckoning of the system that had enabled him. “She Said” is directed by Maria Schrader ("Unorthodox") and co-stars Patricia Clarkson, Andre Braugher, Jennifer Ehle, and Samantha Morton.
THE SON
Florian Zeller, U.S., 2022, 123 min., English
Saturday, Nov. 12, 7:15 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

A pensive, moody drama from Oscar®-winning director Florian Zeller (Best Adapted Screenplay for “The Father”). “The Son” centers on Peter (Hugh Jackman), whose hectic life with his infant and new partner Beth (Vanessa Kirby) is upended when his ex-wife Kate (Laura Dern) appears with their son Nicholas (newcomer Zen McGrath), who is now a sullen, distant, and emotionally troubled teenager. The young man has been frequently missing from school for months and is becoming increasingly distant and angry. Peter strives to take care of Nicholas as he would have liked his own father to have taken care of him while juggling work, his and Beth’s own new son, and the added pressure brought by the offer of his dream position in Washington, D.C., which would uproot them even further. However, by desperately hoping for the past to correct its mistakes, he loses sight of how to hold onto the Nicholas in the present. Sir Anthony Hopkins, who won a Best Actor Oscar® for Zeller’s “The Father,” co-stars as Peter’s estranged father.

SWEET DISASTER
Laura Lehmus, Germany, 2021, 90 min., English, Finnish, & German
Friday, Nov. 4, 12:05 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5
Eventive
This nimble dramedy follows forty-year-old Frida, an art therapist in a daycare center, who unexpectedly gets pregnant. The father of her child, Felix, breaks up with her to reunite with his ex. He casually admits that the timing of his departure is not ideal, but it does not prevent him from leaving. Even though the late pregnancy causes health issues that force her to take some time off to rest, she still pines for and plots to recapture the affections of Felix. Neither of them are perfect as humans, but she goes to great and often comical lengths to get what she wants. Frida routinely charms the viewer and a hilarious assortment of quirky characters in whose lives she meddles with a variety of results. This whimsical film includes a number of candy-colored fantasy sequences. Told in a series of seemingly random events over time grounded in a fuzzy, warm reality of its own, the film will keep the audience smiling as she struggles to turn each small life “disaster” into something rather sweet.
THAT THING THAT SOUND
Kelsey Hammer-Parks & Nathan M. Emerson, U.S., 2021, 71 min., English
Monday, Nov. 7, 7:30 PM, Webster U./Moore
This film explores the uncertain future of the steel guitar, an instrument primarily played by older, white men. Because it’s an expensive and challenging instrument, most young and diverse musicians do not have access to steel guitars or instructors. The film follows one man’s journey to pass on his knowledge and keep the steel guitar alive, and his inspirational story is a model for anyone looking to make a difference in the world.

Shown with On The Verge (Rik Cannon, U.S., 2019, 31 min., English) A documentary studying the fascinating music careers of Steve Scorfina and Mike Safron from the 70s rock-n-roll group, Pavlov’s Dog. These musicians were so close to fame, but through a narrative of unfortunate decisions and circumstances never achieved the success of those they played with. Hosted/interviewed by Supe Granda from Ozark Mountain Daredevils.

THIS IS [NOT] WHO WE ARE
Beret E Strong & Katrina Miller, U.S., 2022, 77 min., English
Sunday, Nov. 6, 3:30 PM, Washington U./Brown
Friday, Nov. 4, 7:00 PM, SIUE
“The happiest place in America is Boulder, Colorado” said no Black person ever. “This is [Not] Who We Are” is a documentary film exploring the gap between Boulder, Colorado’s progressive self-image and the lived experiences of its small but resilient Black community. It’s the story of Zayd Atkinson, a university student who was performing his work study job cleaning job when he was threatened by a police officer and then by eight officers with guns drawn. He lived to tell the story many Black men don’t survive to tell.

THIS IS NOT ME
saeed gholipour, Iran, 2021, 71 min., Persian
Friday, Nov. 4, 2:00 PM, Galleria 2
A powerful film that spotlights the complex lives of trans people in Iran. Both Shervin and Saman offer a glimpse into what life is like for trans youth who, despite loving and supportive parents, are forced to live covert lives, shy away from their neighbors, and even consider emigration, in order to be who they truly are.

TO THE END
Rachel Lears, U.S., 2022, 95 min., English
Thursday, Nov. 10, 7:30 PM, Webster U./Moore
Stopping the climate crisis is a question of political courage, and the clock is ticking. Over three years of turbulence and crisis, four remarkable young women of color fight for a Green New Deal and ignite a historic shift in US climate politics. Directed by Rachel Lears, the director of “Knock Down the House.”
UN-RESOLVED
Bruce Carlton Cunningham, U.S., 2021, 167 min., English
Wednesday, Nov. 9, 5:30 PM, Galleria 2

A gritty, sprawling tale of revenge, “Un-resolved” plays like a Shakespearean drama. An ex-convict, just released from prison, attempts to make up for the lost time with his youngest daughter, who is dying, and to reconnect with his oldest daughter, who has befriended a deadly enemy from his past. But as he attempts to do right by his children and start a new, quieter life, the pull of the streets and fate have other plans, with multiple storylines intersecting to create a powder keg with a dangerously short fuse. The longest work ever featured in the St. Louis Filmmakers Showcase, the film earns every second of its screen time and will have audiences riveted until the final dramatic conclusion. Multi-talented director Cunningham also serves as writer, producer, editor, and co-star. He also co-star’s in another 2002 SLIFF presentation, “Underneath: Children of the Sun.”

With director Bruce Carlton Cunningham, Jr. and members of cast and crew

UNDERNEATH: CHILDREN OF THE SUN
David Kirkman, U.S., 2022, 96 min., English
Friday, Nov. 4, 7:15 PM, Galleria 4

This time and dimension spanning epic is unlike any Missouri-based film, or likely any film, you have ever seen is a captivating and mind-bending Afrofuturist story that embarks on a breathtaking journey of galactic politics, heritage, and destiny. In 1857, a slave in Little Dixie, Missouri is thrust into an intergalactic crises after helping an alien from a crashed spaceship. An ultra-powerful alien artifact passes through generations of bloody fingers and inheritors here on Earth, including the present, and ultimately leads to an epic battle for control. “Underneath: Children of the Sun” is St. Louis filmmaker David Kirkman’s feature film debut. Kirkman is currently an Artist-in-Residence with the Department of African and African-American Studies at Washington University in St. Louis. His four short films based on Milestone Comics have accumulated over 4 million views online and have attracted a global audience.

With director David Kirkman and members of cast and crew

UTAMA
Alejandro Loayza Grisi, Bolivia/Uruguay, 2022, 87 min., Spanish
Sunday, Nov. 6, 12:05 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

In the arid and hauntingly beautiful Bolivian highlands, an elderly Quechua couple has been living a tranquil life for years. While he takes their small herd of llamas out to graze, she keeps house and walks for miles with the other local women to fetch precious water. When an uncommonly long drought threatens everything they know, Virginio and Sisa must decide whether to stay and maintain their traditional way of life or admit defeat and move in with family members in the city. Their dilemma is precipitated by the arrival of their grandson Clever, who comes to visit with news. The three of them must face, each in their own way, the effects of a changing environment, the importance of tradition, and the meaning of life itself. This visually jaw-dropping debut feature by photographer-turned-filmmaker Alejandro Loayza Grisi is lensed by award-winning cinematographer Barbara Alvarez and won the World Cinema Dramatic Grand Jury Prize at the 2022 Sundance Film Festival.

WE’RE ALL PRETTY BROKEN
Prince Lyons, U.S., 2022, 45 min.
Saturday, Nov. 12, 4:00 PM, Washington U./Brown
An energetic dance film that eloquently follows the activity of three complex high school students and a devoted teacher in Saturday detention. The diverse collective includes rebel Roxie, queer outcast Zane, and Jordan, the troublemaker. The film unpacks the complexities of being a high school student, the paramount commitment of being a teacher, and the impact of our educational system’s sometimes harmful pressures on our youth. This film also features the music and performances of the critically acclaimed Saint Louis rapper, Mvstermind. This powerful and moving short feature is the debut film of director Prince Lyons, who also wrote, choreographed, and co-stars as Jordan. The film will screen in a double-bill with another Black interpretive dance-themed film, “a love letter to Brian, Leslie, and Michelle.” With director Prince Lyons

WHERE IS ANNE FRANK
Ari Folman, Belgium/France/Israel/Luxembourg/Netherlands, 2021, 99 min., English & French
Saturday, Nov. 12, 7:30 PM, Washington U./Brown
The animated film follows the journey of Kitty, the imaginary friend to whom Anne Frank dedicated her diary. A fiery teenager, Kitty wakes up in the near future in Anne Frank’s house in Amsterdam and embarks on a journey to find Anne, who she believes is still alive, in today’s Europe. While the young girl is shocked by the modern world, she also comes across Anne’s legacy. Directed by two-time SLIFF veteran Ari Folman (“Waltz with Bashir” and “The Congress”), this imaginative and moving animated film will touch audiences of all ages. The first movie to be supported by The Anne Frank Fonds Basel, granting the director rare and privileged access to Anne Frank’s diary, various texts and family archives. Director Folman will be in attendance at this free screening. Kitty is voiced by Emily Carey, who plays Queen Alicent in HBO’s “House of the Dragon.” With director Ari Folman

In the midst of civil wars, economic collapse and natural disasters, she continued her charge to help young people break familial cycles of poverty and violence. With co-director Nicole Bernardi-Reis and Executive Producer Jessica Sarowitz
WOMEN TALKING
Sarah Polley, U.S., 2022, 104 min.
Sunday, Nov. 13, 5:30 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

Lit up by radiant, fierce performances by Rooney Mara, Claire Foy, Jessie Buckley, Judith Ivey, Sheila McCarthy, Ben Whishaw and Frances McDormand, this is a true masterpiece by Canadian director/actor Sarah Polley. This fearless adaptation of Miriam Toews' acclaimed novel is about a cloistered world where women struggle to search for grace during an epidemic of abuse. Reeling from multiple counts of sexual abuse, newly uncovered within their Mennonite colony, a group of women gather in a hayloft to discuss how to respond. While the men are away, the women narrow their options down to three: do nothing, stay and fight, or leave. Some fear that any act of defiance will jeopardize their entry into heaven, while others believe they cannot survive without husbands and sons. Some are willing to take any measures to escape the terror of their domestic lives and insist that "the truth is stronger than the rules." Polley’s fearless direction ushers us through a journey of rage, grief, wisdom, and hope through to a triumphant, most gratifying conclusion.

YOU RESEMBLE ME
Dina Amer, France, 2021, 90 min., Arabic & French
Saturday, Nov. 12, 12:05 PM, Plaza Frontenac 5

Eventive
This multi-layered tale explores how children of migrant families in Europe are constantly code-switching: acting in one way to please their family at home and then another to keep up with their friends. This kaleidoscope of splintered identities and fractured dreams is based on the life Hasna Aït Boulahcen, falsely named in the media as Europe's first female suicide bomber following the November 2015 terrorist attacks on Paris. Two Muslim sisters live on the outskirts of Paris but are torn apart by their individual views on the world. Hasna is at once off putting and conflicted, while still remarkably empathetic. She struggles to find her identity amidst a rudderless existence, leading to a shocking choice that forever changes her world. Egyptian director Dina Amer takes on a dark issue and deconstructs it in an intimate story about family dysfunction, sisterly love, and belonging in a harsh, complicated, and often morally ambiguous world. Her written work has been published in The New York Times, CNN and the Huffington Post. “You Resemble Me” is her directorial debut.

NARRATIVE SHORTS: VIVE LA FRANCE!
Wednesday, Nov. 9, 4:15 PM, Galleria 4, 112 min.
France holds a special place in the hearts of both cinephiles and St. Louisans, and these diverse exports confirm the nation’s continued cinematic vitality is just as strong as it was with the creative tidal wave of La Nouvelle Vague.

SHOWCASE SHORTS
Tuesday, Nov. 8, 4:00 PM, Galleria 2, 90 min.
A selection of standout and award-winning documentary, experimental, and narrative shorts from the 2022 St. Louis Filmmakers Showcase.

Bird Bullies (Rick Petty, U.S., 2021, 2 min., English) A cautionary tale about birding: An amateur bird watcher gets bullied for not knowing his birds. Ethan and Edna (Andy Compton, U.S., 2022, 19 min., English) After being dumped by his girlfriend, a sad sap — with the help of his foul-mouthed grandma — must retrieve the last connection to his ex: a phone charger. Hold Me, Don’t Touch Me (Adrian Todd Zuniga, 2022, 9 min., English) On a freezing London evening, Aidy — who is disconsolate over the death of her child — skips grief counseling and enters a pub, where an eager but ill-equipped stranger is intent on helping her. (a human) being (Pier Marton, U.S., 2022, 5 min., English) A personal essay on our addiction to images and sounds. Interstellar Gunslingers (Nate Carroll, U.S., 2022, 3 min., English) A former cavalry scout and lawman is challenged to an out-of-this-world duel for his gold-mine claim. Island Hopping (Michael Long, U.S., 2021, 6 min., No Dialogue) A character learns that the only way to survive in an island world is to keep hopping (and hoping) from one island to the next. The Lungs (Zlatko Cosic, U.S., 2022, 5 min., No Dialogue) A reflection on the climate crisis, deforestation, and the devastating damages to the lungs of the earth. Viral (Michael Rich, 2022, 13 min., English) An overworked auto repairman fights to survive the night after hitting an unknown entity in the road. Who Is Syd? (Gabriel Hunter Sheets, U.S., 2021, 3 min., English) Syd discusses their experience with depression, derealization, and coming to terms with their gender identity and sexuality. World Skin (Van McElwee, U.S., 2021, 9 min., No Dialogue) A dream of ancestors dreaming — a dream of their soft nostalgias and murmurs from the underworld.
